Theories

THEORY #1

Coronavirus is a purely spontaneous event that our political leaders must respond to quickly and forcefully to save millions of lives so that we can all go back to our secular lifestyles of individual freedom and consumption.

PROBLEM WITH THEORY #1

We're seeing an astonishing rise of state authoritarianism and power based on lies, bogus models, and hysterical media reporting to save lives the oligarchs don't even care about.

THEORY #2

Coronavirus is a mostly spontaneous event that the oligarchs and their managers are responding to with fear, panic, and unsound policy, thereby increasing the possibility of destroying their globalist system through economic failure and social chaos.

PROBLEM WITH THEORY #2

Nations have had pandemic plans on the books, even ones specific to coronavirus. Implementation of a plan may have hiccups, and politicians may appear stressed or go off-script, but it must be assumed that government response is methodical.

THEORY #3

Coronavirus is a spontaneous or locally planned event that the oligarchs are striving to resolve to resume their globalist system, but only after using the crisis as an opportunity to introduce a few of their important projects.

PROBLEM WITH THEORY #3

They were too quick to destroy the system
they intend to resume.

THEORY #4

Coronavirus is a spontaneous or locally planned event that the oligarchs will use to transition to a new stage of globalism that involves greatly reduced levels of freedom and movement.

PROBLEM WITH THEORY #4

Existing form of globalism seems to be working so well in controlling the world population.

KEY QUESTION

Are the oligarchs ready to move onto a new stage of globalism?

“No!”

Then... secular and commercial freedom will return with annoying but minor restraints (masks, social distancing) that most citizens won't care too much about.

Signs of confirmation:

- Urgency to return to normal among the elite
- Hast to end quarantines
- Heavily promoted media stories of those suffering depression or suicide from quarantine / social distancing

“Yes!”

Then... permanent authoritarianism and heavy persecution.

Signs of confirmation:

- Strict quarantine that seems neverending
- Impossible to achieve “flatten the curve” goals to end social distancing measures
- Grooming of public to get used to “new normal”
- Calls for UBI instead of return to economic activity
- No lamentation from elites on destruction of travel industry and others, or even “capitalism”

My Theory

This is a carefully
orchestrated technocratic worldwide revolution to usher in the next stage of globalism using coronavirus as the pretext...

...or this is a live test to implement essential societal changes before the real worldwide revolution
occurs in the near future.

What would have to proceed?

- 20-50% permanent destruction of economy -> severe poverty
- Trauma-based social control -> mass hysteria/fear
- Revolts (real or false flag)
- Military involvement and/or militarized police
- Indefinite detention, new camps for “domestic threats”
- Use of criminals as shock troops
- More aggressive surveillance and censorship
- Vaccination, certificates, and chips needed to buy, sell, or work
- Digital currency
- Severe gun restrictions or confiscations
- Christian persecution
- Brave “new” society in the name of saving lives

Buy why?

- Previous 'open society' was merely a transition stage
- Predictive models showed successful populist uprisings in the near future
- Depopulation control wasn't reaching goals

Near-term confirmation triggers

- Rolling internet outages
- Military vehicles patrolling neighborhood streets
- Temporary local bans on paper currency

Theory flaws

- Huge conspiracy
- Human nightmare
